Do you live for the weekend and other special days? What if each day could be special in its own way? Victory in the Workplace Victory in the Workplace ministries began in 1993. The purpose of Victory in the Workplace is to help change people s lives by changing their workplace experience. Through conferences, books and special meetings, many people begin to see their job in a whole new light. These seminars take place in businesses, university classrooms, Bible Schools or churches. The teachings are well-received, sometimes life changing. In 1993, we started in America. Since 1995, we have expanded the ministry to these former communist countries in Eastern Europe: Belarus, Ukraine, Russia, Lithuania, Poland, and the Czech Republic. Nate and his wife Chris have pastored Living Word Church in Redwood Falls, MN for more than 30 years. Before that, he spent several years in the business world. They have two children, Amy and Corey. Amy is married and works in corporate payroll for Wells Fargo. Corey is also...
