Portugal - that is the southern way of doing things, with fizzing vinho verde, fine port wine and stunning scenery. Like a large garden, lush green and full of blossom, resplendent with colour and wonderfully fragrant, the country is a feast for all the senses. With MARCO POLO Portugal you will discover a land full of interesting variety and sometimes even exciting contradictions. In an area about one sixth the size of France, stunning beaches alternate with cliffs and mountains, pulsating cities with with remote villages and magnificent palaces with battlemented storybook castles. This practical, pocket-sized guide whisks you across the fertile plains and the lush wine-growing areas of the north, through the cork forests and orange groves of the Alentejo, to the sun-drenched Algarve and the legendary Cape Sao Vicente, so often buffeted by Atlantic storms. Lisbon is a great place to visit at any time of year. And everywhere you go you will meet friendly and open-hearted people: Portugal thrills, excites and leaves you gazing in awe. Get infected by the Mediterranean joie de vivre! The Insider Tips reveal, among other things, how to experience a different side of the Algarve and where you can get a free massage. The 'Best Of' pages point out some experiences unique to Portugal, recommend things to do for free,...
