Then you multiply by the number of years of service and we have it just exactly the same. When we come here to section 3, the section which gives the man the right to apply, it does not say he shall go out. but he has the right to apply after 30 years of service, and if he does apply you provide in the bill that 3 per cent per annum for every year less than 60 years shall be deducted from the amount of the annuity. That is just as equitable. We believe that. We see no reason why it should not be. Then the best of all provisions in it is the fourth that takes the old man up. I could cite several cases--I will cite one of a man who met me on the street and said, What am I going to do now? I am 62 years old; I have worked 30 years in the navy yard faithfully. I knew it was true because I knew the man. He says, I am discharged. I have no recourse than to go out and starve to death. I have a family of five to support. He says, What am I going to do? I said, I do not know, Hughes; there are other men int the same shape coming to me daily and asking me what are they going to do, where can they get help. Gentlemen, those...
