Andrew Johnson, of Tennessee: On the War for the Union; Delivered in the Senate of the United States, July 27, 1861 The Senate having under consideration the joint resolution(S. No.1) to approve and confirm certain acts of the President of the United States for suppressing insurrection and rebellion Mr. Johnson-, of Tennessee, said? Mr. President: When I came from my heme to the seat of Government-, in compliance with the proclamation of the President of the United States calling us together in extra session, it was not my intention to engage in any of the discussions that might transpire in this body; but since the session began, in consequence of the course that things have taken, I feel unwilling to allow the Senate to adjourn without saying a few words in response to many things that have been submitted to the Senate since its session commenced. What little I shall say -to-day will be without much method or order, I shall present the suggestions that occur to my mind, and shall endeavor...
