Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Annals of the Minnesota Historical Society, 1852: Containing the Annual Address, and Other Papers Member of the Minnesota Historical Society - Ladies and Gentlemen: I appear before you more on account, as I fear, the partiality of my friends, than on account of any great profit which may accrue to you from any thing I may have to say. I could wish that some one else, among the many competent gentlemen I now see before me, had been selected for the duty with which I have been entrusted; but having been requested to contribute something to the entertainment of the society, I have not felt at liberty to decline. The society, whose objects we are now met together to promote, has for its chief end, the record and elucidation of facts and incidents connected with the history, past and passing, of the territory whose name it bears; but it has also, if I err not, though in a subordinate degree, the preservation and illustration of the like kind of information in regard to any other...

Reviews

This publication may be really worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It really is written in simple terms and never difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
