

Messengers of an Alien God (Paperback)

By R Douglas Burns

Magichat Books, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Messengers of an Alien God (Occult Science Fiction) After the Fall The small rural town of Creedance, Missouri, finds itself hosting a crashed alien flying saucer of gargantuan proportions. The saucer's crew are beautiful but amorphous creatures resemble Old-Testament angels, claim to be immortal but claim no knowledge of any religion. Beyond What We Know Coincidental with the crash of the alien saucer, the electromagnetic pulse of a stratospheric nuclear explosion has knocked all solid-state electronic devices, including radios, televisions, car ignition systems, cell phones and most landline telephone systems, power-plant control computers and even digital watches. Creedance is isolated from the rest of the world. Minotaur Then, one by one, local residents disappear or are found sexually mutilated. A few citizens begin to wonder why they and the rest of their neighbors have accepted the archangels with initial indifference. Lost Souls As more residents disappear, the an odd alliance of a right-wing sheriff, a new-age waitress, an eccentric intellectual and his wife, and stranded college student seek clues to the true nature of the angels....

Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
