The detective conversed with the patient, Dr. W . being present. In answer to O Donohue s questions, shc declared, in substance, that one W was the cause of her trouble ; that a girl Whom she inch 011 Lexington Avenue had recommended her to Dr. Reid, whose residence she gave to O Donohue as nearly as her memory served; and that he had treated her, and had used an instrument on her, which she did not describe. Upon Dr. W. s statement and the declarations of the patient, O Donohue sought Dr. Reid that night to armt him, but failed to find his address. The next morning (the 17th) he again visited the patient and asked her as to the truth of her statement of the night before. She now declared that it was not true. The oficer thereupon left worn for the coroner to take a statement from the patient, put under arrest W, above mentioned not Dr. W., who had come to the statior house to learn her condition, and obtained from Dr. W., for production at court, a written certificate, signed by him, as follows: This is to ccrtify that S. J. is suffering from peritonitis, and is not No in condition to forbid removal from the hospital. Her condition is very critical, the result apparently of criminal abortion. I Armed with this certificate, O Donohue and another detective, in company with...
