Let the chapter-by-chapter guide in this sidekick of Fear Nothing guide you through the twists and turns of the novel, and help you make sense of the major themes and character motivations. D. D. must learn to come to grips with the pain she feels, while Adeline is haunted by her biological family's grisly legacy, one that ties her to the killer in an intimate way. Who is really killing the women of Boston by skinning them Fear Nothing brings up interesting notions about nature vs. nurture and the role pain plays in life. A fast-paced conclusion brings the story full circle and is sure to leave readers satisfied. In Fear Nothing, Gardner uses a mixture of first- and third-person perspective with a casual, engaging writing style. The seventh installment of Lisa Gardner's Detective D. D. Warren series, Fear Nothing is a dark fusion of thriller and mystery....
