Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Notes From a Journal in North America in 1883 On the 10th May, 1883, I started on my second American tour, accompanied by my friends, the late Mr. Meysey Clive and Mr. Arthur Mitchell. We sailed in the S.S. Germanic (5,004 tons), White Star Line; Captain Kennedy, commander. She is a fine vessel, and an excellent sea-boat; but, as it is not my intention to recommend one line of steamers in preference to another, I will merely state that she was in every way as comfortable and as well managed as any vessel need be. I felt myself very much at home on board, as I had crossed the Atlantic in 1881, in the sister ship, the Britannic, of which the Germanic is in every respect a facsimile. We had secured the best accommodation procurable - namely, the Purser s cabin on deck for one of our party, and a large roomy family cabin below for the other two. One cannot judge properly of an ocean steamer except by experience as a passenger, but the...
